This was so helpful and encouraging to me in my ministry. I feel more confident in what God has called me to do.
Lynda

What I enjoyed about the workshop was the different activities we had, and the way we engaged with each other.
Erica
Grassroots Training provides relevant and practical training to everyday people through a variety of different methods, including workshops, seminars, small groups and classes.

Grassroots Training options are available to people who are in paid or volunteer ministry roles in churches or schools; those wishing to pursue a career in ministry; or individuals seeking personal development and growth.

All training is presented in a relaxed environment, where course content is interactively delivered and put into practice immediately. Grassroots Training options are a great way to feel better equipped for ministry, and to obtain more tools for your ministry toolbox.

Did you know? Attendance at Grassroots Training workshops can be used towards gaining a qualification via Australian Lutheran College.
